THE

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY

REVIEW

VOL. IX.

WHOLE SERIES
VOLUME 25

CHARLESTON:
C. MORTIMER, PUBLISHER.
LONDON:
TRUBNER & CO., PATERNOSTER ROW
BALTIMORE: J. S. WATERS. RICHMOND: J. W. RANDOLPH, MAIN-ST.
COLUMBIA, S. C.: R. L. BRYAN.

1854.

AMS PRESS, INC.
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10003

Reprinted 1965
AMS PRESS, INC.
New York, N. Y. 10003

Printed in U.S.A.

INDEX

TO THE

NINTH VOLUME,

NEW SERIES,

OF THE

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

A.

AGASSIZ, PRINCIPLES OF ZOOLOGY, 333; Anthon, Dr. Charles, 66; Arnold, Dr., an error of, 350; American Educational Works, 57; strictures upon Smith's Grammar, 58; commendation of Smith's Geography, 62; strictures on American editions of English Works, 63; on Inman's edition of Maunder's Treasury, 64; on Bohn's edition of Mallet's Northern Antiquities, 65; on Dr. Anthon, 66; on Mills, 68; on Fowler, 69; commendation of Latham, and the Appleton's edition of his Handbook of the English Language, 73

B.

BACON'S ALLEGED APHORISM, "KNOWLEDGE IS POWER," examined, 21; Bulwer's "My Novel," criticised, 17; Busy Moments of an Idle Woman, noticed, 212

C.

CALHOUN, J. C., 14, 321, 488, 520; Carey on the Slave Trade, reviewed, 115; Carey's "free trade," 116; his political economy, 117; mutual relations of North and South, 119; indulgent system of slave management, 120; England, 129; Carey confuted generally, 115 sq.; Cellars, evils of, in Charleston, 109; Census of U. S., report on the seventh, 521; Church and State, 494; Civil Liberty and Self-Government, 300; Communism, 301; Rousseau's political theory, 302, 3; centralization in France, 304; Anglican Liberty, 306, 7; Mirabeau, 307; Lamartine's democracy, 309; importance of Lieber's work on Civil Liberty, 310 sq. 331; citizen—citizenship, 312 sq.; Marcy and Koszta, 313; Cockney rudeness, 314; politeness in Europe, 315, 16; education of the people, 316, 17; maintenance of the Constitution, Webster, 318, 19, 20; nullification, 320, 1; the Mormons, 321, 2, 3, 4; the common law, 325; constitutional law, 326, 7; sale of offices, 327; right to petition, 327, 8, 9, 10; local self-government and centralization, 331, 2; Cockney rudeness, specimen of, 314; Common Schools in S. Carolina, 470; Taber's speech, 471 sq.; kind of instruction due from the State, 474; Thornwell's letter, 475 sq.; fault of our free-school system, 479; working of the present system, 481; proposals in reference to the present system, 483 sq.; present appropriation, 484; remuneration of teachers, 485; Communism, 301, 499; Constitution of U. S., remarks on, 509 sq; Court, scientific conception of judgment of, 292; Court, Supreme, decision of in Gaine's case reviewed, 286, 299; Craven County, Historical and Social Sketch of, 377 sq.; Critical Notices, 214, 532. Addresses and Orations—Bright's before Societies of Erskine College on Obligations of American Youth, 557; Choat's on Daniel Webster, 264; Field's before surviving Members of the Constitutional Convention of N. Jersey, 263; Gayarre's on Election Frauds in N. Orleans, 557; Gifford's on Military Education, 264; Hull's before Madison Female College, (Georgia,) 263; Perkin's before Societies of Oakland College, on duty of drawing from the history and theory of our government just views of individual and national life, 263; Pilgrim Celebration, 234; Obituary Addresses on death of Atherton, 556; ditto on death of Webster, 252; Taggart's on Fasting and Prayer; 264; Taggart's on the Moral Mission of our Country; 261; Yeadon's on Subordination, before Societies of the Military Academy, Charleston, 551. Biography—Anecdotes of Painters, Spooner, 267; Autobiographic Sketches, De Quincey, 254; The Bourbon, Beauchesnes, 272; Cloister of Charles V, Sterling, 542; Life, &c., of Louis XVII, Hazlitt, 272; Haydon's Autobiography, 265; Light on the Dark River, Life of Mrs. Hamlin, 536; Life of Edmund Burke, Prior, 538; Memoirs of Abernethy, Maxilwain, 555; Life of Sheridan, Moore, 228; Life of William Pinckney, 259; Memoir, Journals, &c., of T. Moore, Lord Russell, 260; Memoir of Francis Horner, 267; Memoir of Pierre Toussaint, 543; Memoir of Mary Ware, 551. History and Politics—American Revolution, Documentary History, R. W. Gibbes, 231, 544; Abstract of Seventh Census, 256; Works of Calhoun, 258; China, history of Insurrection in, from French of Callery and Yvan, 266; Civil Liberty and Self-Government, Lieber, 239; Cuba, Correspondence relative to, Everett, 219; Captivity of Napoleon at St. Helena, from Sir H. Lowe's papers, Forsyth, 549; Diplomatic System of U. States, Trescott's Letter on, 214; Greece, Grote's History of, 266; Liberties of America, Warner, 242; Laws of the Ancient Hebrews, commentaries on, Wines, 258; Navy of the United States, history of, Cooper, 214; Peninsular War, &c., Napier, 245; Public Lands, Cantwell, 250; Remarks on Stability and Progress, Everett, 219; Roman Classical Literature, Browne, 266; South-Carolina, Topics in the history of, Rivers, 230; Theory of Politics, Hildreth, 236; Venice, the city of the Sea, Flagg, 241; Vermont, history of, 254; Washington's Letters to Reed, 243; Waterloo, political and military history of the campaign of, Jomini, 249. Fiction—Abelard and Eloise, 236; Blackwater Chronicle, 268; The Blood Stone, 552; Bleak House, 224; Bride of Omberg, 253; Busy Moments of an Idle Woman, 552; Clouded Happiness, 255; Crawford, 245; Clovernook, 550; The Exiles, 235; Fawn of the Pale Faces, 252; Flush Times of Alabama, 555; Golden Dreams and Leaden Realities, 552; Gustavus Lindorm, 270; Hypatia, 539; Lady Lee's Widowhood, 269; Lorenzo Benoni, 247; Mud Cabin, 221; Pen and Ink Panorama of N. York, 256; Sickness and Health of the People of Bleaburn, 550; Tanglewood Tales, 256; Vasconselos, 549; Western characters or Types of Border Life, 272. Juvenile Books—Adventures in Fairy Land, 553; The Good-natured Bear, 354; A Week's Delight, 554; Harry's Ladder to Learning, 554; Mrs. Rutherford's Children, 271; Tiptop, or noble aims, ib.; Happy Days of Childhood, ib.; Picture Pleasure Book, 272; Stuyvesant, 267; Lessons before Confirmation, 254; The Story of an Apple; Pleasure and Profit, 253; Popular Legends of Brittany, 554; Panoramas, ib.; Little Charley's Picture Home Book, ib. Scientific, &c.—Baird's Scientific Publications, 553; Book of Nature from German of Medlock, Shroedler, 269; Elliott Society of Nat. Hist., 269; Coast Survey, 258; Ethnographical Library, Norris, 247; Manual of Geology, Lyell, 258; Principles of Geology, Lyell, 257; Hallucinations, or Rational History of Apparitions, &c., De Boisement, M.D., 243; The Mind and its Creations, Hart, 251; Outlines of Comparative Philology, De Vere, 534; Philosophy of Sir Wm. Hamilton, arranged by Wright, 246; Sir W. Hamilton's Discussions, edited by Turnbull, 246; Report of Engineers on supply of water for Charleston, 232. Miscellaneous—Art and Industry as represented at the Crystal Palace, Greeley, 535; Appleton's Modern Atlas, 257; Addison, edited by Greene, 266, 566; Aldine Edition of British Poets, Boston, 270; Cole's Course of Empire, &c., Noble, 241; Collier's Shakspeare, 257; Day in the New-York Crystal Palace, Richards, 552; Cumberland's British Drama, 260; Comings's Class Book of Physiology, 261; Coleridge, Harper's ed., 266; Church Dictionary, 270; Elements of Rhetoric, Whately, 261; First Voyage to California, Taylor, 250; Genius and Faith, Scott, 240 ; How to Behave, 556 ; Journal of Travels, Millard, 251 ; Health Trip to the Tropics, Willis, 271 ; Homes in the New World, Miss Bremer, 271 ; Hearth Stone, Osgood, 550 ; Lepsius's Letters from Egypt, &c., 532 ; Life in the Mission, Camp and Zenana, Mrs. Mackenzie, 272 ; Lectures to Young Men, Eliot, 555 ; The Lost Prince, Louis XVII., 551 ; Libretto Books, 260 ; Manual of Greek Literature, Anthon, 536 ; Mythology related to children, from the French of Fleury, 255 ; Men and Things Abroad, Kirwan, 262 ; Odd Fellow's Annual, 264 ; Outlines of Scripture Geography and History, Hughes, 262 ; Patent Office Report, 550 ; Patent Key to Uncle Tom's Cabin, 261 ; The Potiphar Papers, 556 ; Praktische, Englische Grammatik, Bryan, 253 ; Psychomancy, Page, M.D., 251 ; Peruvian Antiquities, 537 ; Rhetoric of Conversation, Harvey, 251 ; La Thebaide en Amerique, Rouquette, 238 ; Self-Instructor, Habersham, 244 ; Story of Mount Blanc, Smith, 244 ; Stearne's Notes on Uncle Tom s Cabin, 248 ; Six Months in Italy, Hilliard, 250 ; Specimens of the British Poets, by Campbell, 537 ; Sheil's Sketches of the Irish Bar, 558 ; Selections from Chalmers's Correspondence, 262 ; Statute of Limitations, Sewell, 265 ; Voices from the Mountains and from the Crowd, Mackey, 555 ; Visit to Europe, Silliman, 262

Omitted accidentally in their place in the Index of Critical Notices—De Quincey's Writings, 538 ; Notes from Life, Taylor, 540 ; A Month in England, Tuckerman, ib. ; Liberia, or Mr. Peyton's Experiment, 542 ; Art of Prolonging Life, Hufeland, 542 ; Minnesota and its resources, Bond, 543 ; The Czar and the Sultan, Gilson, 544 ; Principles of the Water Cure, 558 ; Schooler's Elements of Descriptive Geometry, 558 ; Ruffin's Premium Essay on Agricultural Education, 558 ; Negroes and Negro Slavery, Van Evrie, M.D., 541 ; Report of the Providence Athenæum, 557 ; Putnam's Magazine, 549 ; Norton's Literary and Educational Register, 557 ; Decision of Superintendent of Common Schools, New-York, on Roman Catholic children attending the public schools, 557 ; Catalogue of Furman University, 458 ; Books relating to Virginia, 558 ; Essays on Insane Asylums, 263 ; Supplement to Grinnell Land, ib. ; Circular of the Medical Department of the University of Louisiana, for 1853–'4, ib. ; The Black Man—comparative Anatomy and Psychology of the African Negro, Burmeister, 264 ; Xenophon's Memorabilia, Robbins, 261

THE CUBAN QUESTION, 429. For the points handled in discussion of this question, consult Index, under title "Diplomatic History of U. States."

CUBA AND THE TRIPARTITE TREATY, 1 ; condition of things on the old continent, 1, 2 ; state of the new continent, 3, 4 ; division of continents, 5 ; Cuban question an American question, 6 ; Hayti, 6, 7 ; Lord's Russell's and Mr. Everett's statements of the Cuban question, 7, 8 ; military importance of Cuba, 11 ; political importance of Cuba, 13 ; Calhoun's views respecting Texas applied to Cuba, 14

D.

DE BOW, J. B. D, HIS LABOURS, 530, 1 ; Diplomatic History of the U. States, 432 ; divided into three periods, 432 ; time of Washington, foreign policy then, 433, 4, 5 ; time of Jefferson, new state of things, 336 ; two leading ideas of the foreign policy of the U. S. at this time, 436 ; time of Monroe, real commencement of our national life, 438 ; our relations with Spain, 438 ; position of Spanish colonies towards mother-country, 439, 40 ; position of England towards Spanish colonies after the French invasion of Spain, 441 sq. ; Canning's policy, conferences with Rush, 441, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 ; relation of the independence of the U. S. to that of the Spanish colonies, 449, 50 ; principles respectively represented by France, England and the U. S., in regard to South American States, 450 sq. ; relations of England, France and the U. S. towards Cuba, 453 sq. ; misunderstandings between the U. S. and Spain, 456 ; joint representation of France and England to the U. S. on the state of Cuba, 456 sq. ; Mr. Webster's negotiations on the subject, 458, 9 ; Mr. Everett's negotiations, 459, 60, 1 ; grounds on which he placed the question, 461, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 ; Divorce, Canon Law respecting, 295 ; Drainage, 77, 97, 100

E.

EVERETT, EDWARD ; his services as Secretary of State, 430 sq. ; his letter to Lord Russell, 7, 219, 649 ; his "stability and progress," 219; his official correspondence on the Cuban question, 459, 60, 1, 2 sq., Education, 46, 470; England and Cuba, (see under Diplomatic History of U. S.;) Epidemics, how guarded against, 82; Exports and Imports of U. S. for 1852, tabular view of, 529

F.

Fever, Yellow, 83, 7, 9; Foreign Policy of the U. States, 432; France and U. S. in relation to Cuba, (see under Diplomatic History of U. S.;) Freedom, more enlarged, how obtained, 504

G.

The Gaines Case, 273; reasons for its being of general interest, 273; details—who is Mrs. Gaines—her claim, 275; first lawsuit, 276; chancery suit, judgment on which here reviewed, 277, 8, 9; evidence, 210 sq.; proof of status, 283, 4; necessity for strict law of marriage, 285; conclusion of the court, 286; evidence does not sustain it, 287; question of divorce in the case, 288 sq.; scientific conception of the judgment of a court, 292; canon law of divorce, 285; point at issue touching divorce in this case, 296; examination of evidence, 297 sq.; difficulties in the theory of the court under review, 299. Generation and Reproduction, 333; the term generation, 333; spontaneous generation, 334 sq.; reproduction, 336; the polyp, 337; oviparous production, 339; deposition of ova, 341; viviparous generation, 342; the ornithorynchus, 343; marsupial family, 344; Gould and Agassiz, Zoology, 333. Government, Lieber on, 300. Government, tract on, 486; condition of liberty, 486; decay of public virtue, 487; Mr. Calhoun's views examined, 488 sq.; true principles and province of government, 490 sq.; how government can enforce justice, 491; government and religion, 493; state and church, 494; government has no property, 495; not for the "greatest good of the greatest number," 496; Agrarian laws of Rome, 498; red-republicanism, 499; public opinion, 502; reason, the faculty most perverted by the fall, 502; how is government to be improved, 503, 4; more enlarged freedom obtained by fighting, 504; right to just government, 505; free government suited to every people, 506 sq.; Consiitution of U. S., 509; "constructive powers," 510; difference between "preventive" and "aggressive" powers, 510; controversy between "strict constructionists" and "consolidationists," on 8th Sec. 1st Art. of the constitution, 512; limits of the power of congress, 513, nature of prohibitions in the constitution, 515; impolicy of duties on imports, 516; the territories, 517; man's weakness and proneness to evil proved by the history of governments, 519.

H.

Hygiene and Sanatory Economy of Cities, 74

J.

Judgment of a Court, scientific conception of, 292; Jurisprudence, Roman, (see Law.)

K.

"Knowledge is Power," the aphorism examined, 21

L.

Lamartine's Democracy, 309; Law, Roman, 345; column of the Augustal Prefect, 345; Roman Law before the XII Tables, 347; leges regiæ, 347; parricidium, 348, 9; Augustine, 348; property, 348; Servius Tullius, 348; revolution, libera respublica, 349; the XII Tables, 350; error of Dr. Arnold, 350; Licinian laws, 351; first law teacher, 351; Lex Æbutia, 352; juris prudentia regularis, 352; separation of public and private law, 353; definition of lex, 353; influence of stoic philosophy on Roman law, 353, 4; juris prudentia, Scævola, 354; divisions of the law, Pompey, 355; constitutiones principum, 356; the sectæ, 356; system of Roman law finished, 357; the prudentes, their science, 357, 8, 9; golden age of Roman law, Gaius, 360; Papinian, 361; epoch of Severus, last senatus consultum; 362; law schools, 362; alleged reason for their suppression, 362; establishment of the judices pedanei, 363; derivation of pie poudre, 363; Theodosius II and his Code, 364, 5, 6; changes in the Theodosian Code, 366; Justinian, Procopius, 366; Codex Justineaneus I, 367; Cod. Justin. II, 367, 7; method of procedure of compilers, 368, 9; Blume's theory, 370; the Institutions, 371; Codex, Novels, 371; legislation in the East, Basilius Macedo, Leo Philosophus, 372; fable of the discovery of the Codex at Amalfi, 373; Florentine M. S., 374; law school at Bologna, 374; present Corpus Juris, 375; Walker's "inquiry into the use and authority of the Roman Jurisprudence in the law concerning real estate," 375, 6; derivation of "murder," 376; Mackeldey's "modern civil law," 376; Liberty, abuses of, 35; Liberty, condition of, 486; Lieber's Civil Liberty and Self-Government, 300; Literary Woolgatherings, 185; Mr. Consul Lester criticised, analyzed, advised and *flea*botomised, 185 sq.

M.

Macchiavelli's character and principles discussed, 25; Mackeldey's "modern civil law," 376; marriage, necessity for strict law of, 285; Material Progress of the United States, 521; on report of the Seventh Census; Mirabeau's politics, 307; Mormons, 321; murder, derivation of, 376; "My Consulship," (Lester,) 185; "My Novel," (Bulwer,) 17

N.

National Life, commencement of our, 438; North and South, relations of, 119; Norton's "considerations on recent social theories," 32; nullification, 320

P.

The People, 32; popular cant on the subject, 34; liberty, abuses of the term, 35; the universal republic, 36; is truth eternal or temporary, 37; co-operative associations in France, 37; condition of the durability of reform, 37; who are the people, 39; element of truth in the pretensions made for the people, 41; inspiration of the people, 43; phantoms of the market-place, or idola fori, 45; education of the people, 46; alleged want of education in the twenty thousand in S. Carolina who cannot read or write, 48; slavery an instrument of education, 49; want of organization of public opinion at the South, 50; punishment of slaves, 51; improvements suggested relative to slaves, 52, 3, 4; petition, right to, 327; Pie poudre, derivation of, 363; politeness in Europe, instances of, 315, 6; "the Prince" of Macchiavelli, 27; The Public Health, 74; the subject connected with the physical, moral and social relations of man, 74; average mortality lessened by sanatory measures, statistics, 75; improved morals by sanatory reforms, 76; drainage, facts showing its importance, 77; protection from epidemic and contagious diseases, how secured, 82; Copland on the plague, 84; causes of the virulence of the epidemic of 1853, 87; yellow fever in 1852 in Charleston, 89; manner in which an epidemic spreads, 89; manner in which land is reclaimed at New-Orleans, 92; yellow fever at Philadelphia, 93; drainage, effect on atmosphere, 97; system necessary for Charleston, 98; English reports on drainage, 100; evils of cellars in Charleston, neglect of the law relating thereto, 109; cleanliness, 112; physiology, comparative, 333

Q.

Quarantines, 81

R.

Railroads in the U. S., tabular view of, 527; religion and government, 493; report on Seventh Census of the U. S., 521; Roman Law, (see Law,) 345

S.

Sanatory Measures, importance of, 74; schools, common in S. C., 470; social theories, (see the People,) 32; slavery, 49, 51, 4; slaves, management of, 120; slave trade, 115; slave trade, Carey on, reviewed, 115; Spanish colonies after French invasion, 441 sq.; Spain, relations of to U. S., 438, 456; spider, anecdote of, 340; state and church, 494; status, proof of, 283, 4.

T.

Taber's Address, 470 sq.; Thornwell's letter to Gov. Manning, 475 sq.; tract on government, 486; Treaty Tripartite, (see Cuba,) 1, 429

U.

United States, Constitution of, 509, 12;
do. do. diplomatic history of, 432;
do. do. material progress of, 521;
do. do. seventh Census of, 521

W.

Walker's "inquiry into the use and authority of the Roman Jurisprudence in the law of real estate," 375; Webster, Daniel, 318, 458; Woolgatherings, Literary, 185

Z.

Zoology, Agassiz and Gould's, reviewed, 333